

European Socialism's Best Interest Rights of the Child?

I would much rather give American children their CONSTITUTIONAL Fourth Amendment Right-

"to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized."

The best interests test has long been the subject of academic as well as judicial criticism for being indeterminate, providing little guidance on how to weigh the different needs of individual children, especially as they change over time" -
Robert H. Mnookin, Child-Custody Adjudication: Judicial Functions in the Face of Indeterminacy, 39 Law & Contemp. Probs., 226, 257 (Summer 1975).

Best interests operates as an empty vessel into which adult perceptions and prejudices are poured." --Hillary Rodham,
Children Under the Law, 43 Harv. Ed. Rev. 487, 513 (1973).

There is no system ever devised by mankind that is guaranteed to rip husband and wife or father, mother and child apart so bitterly than our present Family Court System." -
Judge Brian Lindsay Retired Supreme Court Judge, New York, New York

There is something bad happening to our children in family courts today that is causing them more harm than drugs, more harm than crime and even more harm than child molestation." -Judge Watson L. White Superior Court Judge, Cobb County, Georgia

Best interest of the child- A new "Civil Right"

Last year, I was cleaning up my computer desktop. One item I came across was a poignant photo of a FLDS girl alone on a bus waving goodbye to her home and the life she knew.

As I was looking at this image, it struck me that- This IS a photo of the "Best Interest of the Child".

And then it struck me. THIS IS A NEW CIVIL RIGHT

That is, the child has the "right" to have her decisions made for her by government. HER "BEST INTEREST" CIVIL RIGHT

The term "In the best interest of the child" itself originates in the 1959 United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child, Principle 2 and 7.

The term is in the 1990 UN Convention on the Rights of the Child-

(Article 3, paragraph 1)

In all actions concerning children, whether undertaken by public or private social welfare institutions, courts of law, administrative authorities or legislative bodies, the best interests of the child shall be a primary consideration.

On February 16, 1995, Madeleine Albright, at the time the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, signed the Convention, against massive protest by American families.

The United States has not ratified the CRC. We never want it to be ratified. See the Parental Rights Amendment at <http://parentalrights.org>

Lots more info on the CRC at <http://familyrights.us/UNCRC>

But the "Best Interest of the Child" concept under Parens patriae was fully implemented in the United States beginning with CAPTA '74.

So the truth is, the Convention on the Rights of the Child has been supplanted into law and already DE FACTO in force.

There is likely no phrase in our language more dangerous to children than "the best interests of the child", because it's the banner enabling the unconstitutional government officious and tyrannical intrusion into families.
