SIGH

On the page <http://users.wildblue.net/dsshell/html/problems.html> (I note that this same page at <http://profane-justice.org/> seems to be missing) you say-

"AFRA leadership and membership would also use the contents of this site and claim credit and authorship- refusing to give credit to the true author!"

So what is AFRA using that you claim ownership of?

Years ago, you DEMANDED that every reference to your materials be removed and you DEMANDED that we STOP promoting your materials and your website. Which DEMANDS I happily complied with. You assisted me in the complete sanitization of the AFRA website of ANY reference to your website or use of your materials.

I certainly do NOT knowingly use any information that you could possibly claim ownership of. In the years since, you have not made me aware of any item that you claim ownership of on the AFRA website .

Please inform me of any such material, or withdraw your assertion.

Take a reading comprehension class, Leonard. The grammatic structure of the subject sentence expressly puts the context into past tense. However, I will point out that the last broadcast by AFRA leadership on this subject includes statements exhorting members to infringe my copyrights. . .as an official policy of AFRA. I have continuously suffered injury by people implementing this policy. This constitutes ongoing contributory and vicarious copyright infringement liability on the part of AFRA.

Are you SURE you want to go there with me? You and AFRA are NOT innocent victims here. You are tortfeasers and all I need is a tiny reason to do something about it.

AFRA's past injurious acts against me and others have not been sanitized. They have not been corrected. They are not being stopped. AFRA earned this reputation all by itself and I have no intention of being silent about it. As I warned you years ago, you should have left me alone. You just didn't get it. I don't see how that is my problem.

You bet it's past tense. Because it was done a long time ago, and nothing new has been put on since that you had anything to do with.

Your information that HAD been on the AFRA website (2002 to 2004?) WAS there with YOUR PERMISSION, and every bit of it WAS removed per your demand, and to YOUR satisfaction AT THAT TIME.

I am in charge of OFFICIAL AFRA broadcasting. I am unaware of any such "broadcast" as you allege.

The AFRA website at <http://familyrights.us> (shortened from <http://www.familyrightsassociation.com> which still works too) is the only dissemination point of OFFICIAL statements of AFRA.

There is no other, and never has been. If it isn't on the AFRA website above, it's not official AFRA. No place else is "unofficial AFRA", nor "satire", nor condoned by AFRA, nor have our tacit approval.

AFRA is not infringing on your "copyrights", never has infringed on your copyrights, and certainly does NOT encourage others to infringe your copyrights.

Your disaffection from AFRA leadership was your own decision. I most certainly chose to "leave you alone" and recommended others to "leave you alone".

AFRA has not injured you in any way. I know of nobody "injuring" you now. Your allegations are spurious and imaginary. AFRA is not your problem, and never has been. AFRA has never opposed your advocacy and seminars. AFRA is not your enemy.

AFRA's reputation is in great shape. I have always chosen to overcome my difficulties and move forward. Why don't you?

By the way, that's ~~tortfeasor~~, which I certainly am not.

Once again, please inform me of any information on the AFRA website that you claim ownership of so I can investigate and REMOVE it, which is the reason I wrote to you to begin with.

Stop lecturing me about irrelevant bullshit. You can't really be that stupid. It's gone way beyond what you think it is. Just because YOU don't recognize the torts and harms committed by AFRA against me and others, doesn't mean they didn't occur. I have the broadcast emails (broadcast to ALL AFRA and some non-AFRA groups) by an AFRA BOD inciting copyright infringement against me. You phucked up, Leonard, when you trusted Hinger, Tower, Kiefer, et. al. Now, they will take you down with them.

You had better hope and pray I win my appeal against Tower this month, or my counterclaims will bring in AFRA. He sued me for attempting to invoke a disciplinary proceeding about his and AFRA's copyright infringement and theft of intellectual property. . .so, if I lose my appeal, I get to countersue him and file a cross complaint to pull his accessories into that counterclaim for that infringement and associated acts that caused me to submit that complaint He's president of AFRA. He acted on behalf of AFRA. The dumbass has gotten the entire AFRA board of directors incriminated in HIS lawsuit and nobody figured that out. Too bad for you. But, even if I win. . .I can still sue you all. Why?

Because, there is NOTHING on AFRA's web site or on the groups condemning, expelling, or otherwise correcting what Tower Hinger, Kiefer or any AFRA member (I have the membership lists at the time of each tort) did with my intellectual property including but not limited to sending a person in to STEAL MY TRADE SECRETS and incite BREACH OF CONTRACT aka interference with contractual relationship (Leonard, Tower sent a buddy to my training to steal my handout and disseminate it to AFRA and publish it on the Internet in violation of a non-disclosure, non-compete agreement signed by that buddy. Do you know how I found this out? Tower INCLUDED THE PROOF OF this conspiracy IN ONE OF HIS PLEADINGS, the dumbass), or with copyright infringement or anything else that will be detailed in the complaint. It's already written. Silence implies consent to the conduct of any BOD or member, including but not limited to the conduct of the duly appointed President. You did not frame AFRA's mission statement very well from the legal liability perspective. And your lame disavowals do not insulate you or AFRA from liability. I already checked.

Leonard, if you know nothing else, you know I am brilliant. I nailed CPS agents by thinking outside the box. I came up with elegant and simple strategies that were foolproof. I have been stopped from that very important work to which God called me, by you and AFRA. I could no longer do that work because AFRA members stalked and harassed and defamed me on line and in the real world, and AFRA endorsed it. . . so I did the only logical thing. I turned my stunning talents against you and AFRA. I am endlessly patient. . .and I think you are beginning to see that I have you and AFRA so boxed in that only one thing will save your collective hides. You and AFRA make nice and settle this ongoing, UGLY dispute, complete with a contract. IMMEDIATELY. These are VERY generous terms considering the hot water you all are in.

If you don't, you can't say, "I didn't know what Tower/Hinger/Billy/Cletus/members were doing," because in California, the home of AFRA, unincorporated associations and their memberships are liable for the acts of their officers and members. And the acts were very publicly broadcast on AFRA groups. And if the online evidence disappears, I still have it and can tell the court that the counterclaim defendants destroyed the online and private computer evidence knowing legal action was imminent in an attempt to cost me redress of my grievances which is grounds for sanctions including finding against you all. . .and, after all, ignorance of the law is no excuse. And you all have been VERY ignorant of the law, even when I so kindly pointed out the torts being committed by AFRA leadership and membership.

You all have been focusing on irrelevant issues and taking the advise of complete morons, while I have been laughing and boxing you in on the really important facts you chose to ignore and even mock me about.

God called me to this work in 1991. He will protect me in doing it. You must know how He treats anyone who disobeys Him or interferes with His servants. . .I suggest you start with yourself, if for no other reason than to protect your @$$. Let the others take care of themselves. . .they've destroyed AFRA already, I'm just sweeping up. This will be your only opportunity to distance yourself from the consequences. Otherwise, I intend to be ruthless.

Suzanne

Who took on five attorneys from a high-powered law firm, pro se, and won a motion to transfer the case to Colorado and survived a motion to dismiss. Read the press release on my website. Read between the lines. Then think long and hard about negotiating a contract to resolve this dispute between us. I am sure you would welcome the peace it would bring.

I don't know why you cannot answer a simple question that I asked nicely. I have asked twice.

So I gather, there is none of your stuff on the AFRA website.

If it wouldn't be too much bother, please send me a copy of that "broadcast" email.

I bet to differ. You did NOT ask nicely. You were pushy and rude and demanding, as if I owed you something important. I don't.

Your attempts to obfuscate the content of my publications with YOUR interpretation of the issue will not fly with me. If you take issue with my publication, sue me. But it would be a grave error to make any erroneous ASSumptions about me or anything about me. You always get it wrong and get yourself into deeper trouble.

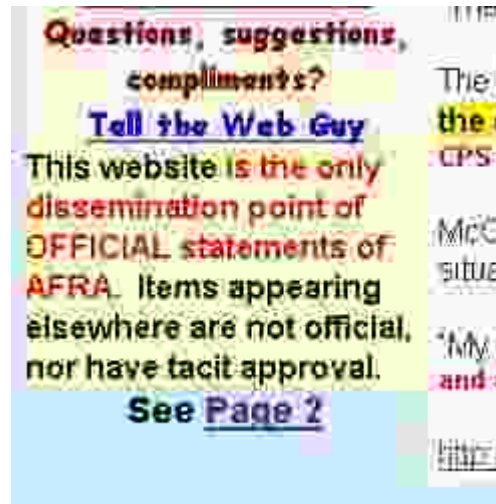

As for sending you that broadcast email, I'm busy. I am not your beck and call girl. I'm not responsible for what you or your friends and associates do with your resources that you make available to them. You are. Find it yourself. . .or you can wait until you get served. I'll attach a copy to the Summons and Complaint.

Leonard.

This is a pathetic disavowal. It is non-specific. It is too little, too late. It is also very incriminating because it is too little, too late. Leo, you are NOT a legal genius, you are making it worse for yourself.

Let me 'splain. . .

IF you (you means AFRA leadership. . .one who has control or authority to define and enforce policy and practice. Do YOU have that authority?) find that

- the conduct of any leader of member conflicts with the official policies and accepted practices of AFRA, or is otherwise inconsistent with AFRA's accepted practices or official policies, or violates existing law,
- who engaged in that conduct as a part of the business or practice associated with AFRA or used AFRA resources (i.e. groups, web sites, etc.) or colluded with AFRA members or leaders to commit that conduct,
- and that conduct causes or has the potential to cause harm or injury to someone else (oh, say, like a consumer or a competitor),
- and you do NOTHING to impose any sanction against the persons or organizations who committed that conduct such as removing them from groups, removing them from AFRA membership, or otherwise distancing AFRA from their conduct,

- and you do not refute, condemn or otherwise distance AFRA from that offending conduct in the SAME PUBLIC FORUMS that the inappropriate conduct was performed and in all venues where that conduct was impacted,
- AT THE TIME THE CONDUCT happened

then AFRA, AFRA leadership and AFRA membership are liable for the damages associated with that conduct. . .

OR

IF you (in this scenario, you means AFRA member, supporter, or other status indicated by participation in or with AFRA business and endorsement of AFRA business) do not have the authority to make decisions about official policy or accepted practices) find that any conduct by AFRA leadership or membership, or conducted with the use of AFRA resources, including but not limited to AFRA groups, AFRA membership lists, AFRA members, AFRA web site, etc., would tend to cause anyone harm and you do not either make a public demand that AFRA leadership use their authority to impose sanctions on the offending actors and if AFRA fails to take appropriate action, then to remove yourself from AFRA membership, then you are also liable for the conduct that occurred and the resultant damages (this is specific to California law-and since Tower dragged ME into California courts, I get to drag everyone else there with me).

Simply put, when the dirty deed was done by anyone associated with AFRA, or with the use of AFRA resources, AFRA had a legal duty to take action to correct that dirty deed and prevent future dirty deeds. If AFRA did not take that action at the time of the dirty deed, AFRA consented to the dirty deed, contributed to the dirty deed and is liable for the dirty deed.

AFRA had actual,constructive, direct, fair, and implied notice of the dirty deeds committed against me, Kay, Effie, Christine, and others. AFRA and AFRA members did nothing to correct or prevent the dirty deeds. I warned you, Leonard.

Here is the "I told you so" part:

- I TOLD you not to let AFRA forums to be used by members to bash me. You argued with me and refused to establish and enforce a policy regarding bashing me or my profession. (Look up anything to do with business law, false and misleading advertising, consumer rights. Consider this actual and constructive notice.)
- I TOLD you that AFRA members were using AFRA forums and groups to infringe my copyright and IP. You argued with me and refused to establish and enforce a policy protecting everyone's Intellectual Property Rights. In so doing, AFRA profited (legal term of art) from my IP. (Look up contributory and vicarious copyright infringement, reverse palming off, trade secret AND criminal copyright infringement as a predicate act to RICO. Consider this actual and constructive notice).
- I TOLD you to stop 'helping' me and stop publishing your misleading rhetoric about me. You refused. I am taking that personally.

Your puny efforts to shine your rusted halo with these meaningless disavowals are more harmful than helpful from the perspective you your legal liability. I offered you a way to get out of this ugliness and save face, and you are too proud to take it. You want to posture hollowly. Whether you believe it or not, I can convince a jury that you started all of this Leonard. You encouraged and incited AFRA membership against me. Then YOU bailed. Now you try a resurrection? To do what. . .continue the Anti-Suzanne Campaign you started?

The is a much less painful option. . . Negotiate a contract resolving this issue between us, Leonard, just to save your own @$$$. You don't owe AFRA, Tower, Hinger, Kiefer anything because they don't care who they dragged into this legal abyss, including dirtying AFRA's legacy. You can come out looking like a hero - you can take credit for taking positive action to insure that aggrieved families again have access to quality goods and services by finding a way that I can start my CLE training for attorneys and judges again safe from the kind of interference with it caused by AFRA dirty deeds. I don't care if you take some credit for getting my work back on track.

If you don't want to settle, I just don't think you can match legal wits with me. . . you never even detected when you were being boxed in by me, when I gave you opportunities to do the right thing or escalate by doing the wrong thing. You still don't. Let me make this crystal clear. . . I was following a plan of action. . . and you fulfilled every prediction I made. This wasn't accidental, Leonard. People can only be who they are. It seems I know you much better than you know me.

You've dug a deeper hole every time you try to bully me into backing down. If you haven't figured it out by now, I don't back down to bullies. So let's make nice, let's get it in writing. You and me. Not AFRA and me (unless you control AFRA?). . . YOU and me. Leave AFRA to self-destruct. . . Effie and I can handle sweeping up that mess just fine by ourselves.

Why, Leonard. I thought you took exception to some things you allege I have done You know I take excepting to certain things you have done. . . . don't you want to negotiate a truce? with terms? in writing? If you don't want to end this war, just say so. This is merely an attempt to reach a settlement prior to taking other action. People often do this to avoid litigation. Yeah, I know, Tower didn't, but he's unreasonable and a complete ass. It will play out in court with him. . . just like he wanted. I am attempting to avoid some unnecessary ugliness as well as giving you the opportunity to salvage what is left of AFRA before it gets dragged into the ugliness. But, not to worry, if you want ugliness, so be it.

Oh. . . this is confidential between you and me. . . I know you've already approached Tower with my overture, he blabbed it in oral arguments today. You tell Tower anything about this and all negotiations are off. My offer is good for 24 hours.

Suzanne

The 24 hours expired..... I told the Board of Directors, too.

Notice how she can't answer a simple question? Just throws out threats. Lots of them.
Here's how she spun the above exchange-

Leonard Henderson has been contacting me recently with back channel comments about my publications. I have taken the opportunities to attempt to forge a resolution to the ongoing dispute with AFRA.

Leonard has been adamantly opposed to negotiating a truce. So has Tower, for that matter.

Just so the record is clear as to who is being unreasonable and unwilling to be professional and work out the dispute.

I want readers to remember this is the fifth time I tried and AFRA was UNWILLING to even talk about it. It seems they WANT this war, after all, AFRA declared it.
